

CHAPTER OF THE MONTH

TREVOR BROWN DECA

The Trevor G. Browne DECA Chapter is proud to nominate itself for Chapter of the Month in recognition of a period of incredible growth and revitalization. Over the past two years, the chapter has undergone a transition between advisors, and with the guidance and leadership of their current advisor, Ms. Abbott, they are reestablishing and strengthening their chapter's foundation. This year, Trevor Browne DECA has reignited its members' passion for the organization and demonstrated the vast opportunities it provides.

The members of Trevor Browne DECA have gone above and beyond expectations in both engagement and participation. For example, after a two-year hiatus, 40 members attended the Fall Leadership Conference this year. Additionally, the chapter's membership has seen remarkable growth, expanding from 44 members last year to 230 members this year.

Beyond membership growth, Trevor Browne DECA is actively involved in all chapter campaigns. The chapter is on track to complete both the Membership Campaign and the Community Service Campaign, while also re-establishing its social media presence to enhance community connections. With such momentum, the future of the Trevor G. Browne DECA Chapter is bright, and they are excited for the initiatives yet to come. Their dedication and efforts make them a deserving candidate for Chapter of the Month.

Alex Zamesnik has been an active WFHS DECA member for the past three years. This year as our president she has been an example of leadership and friendship to our growing chapter. The past two years she has ran the BEST competition prep our students had ever had the benefit of. She is so good with details and pours over her projects and assignments with the care every teacher/advisor hopes for. She has a caring heart and volunteers many hours to not only our chapter, but to the community. To know Alex is to know a person of strength who in spite of life challenges doesn't let anything hold her back and lifts those around her. So grateful she is our President!
